

Attn: City Desk / Education / Aerospace

MEDIA ADVISORY

April 14th, 2008
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contacts: Felix I. Hernandez, LACC
(213) 792-1948 cell

ITT Technical Institute

Nader Mojtabai, ITT
(317) 428-8373 cell

Over 5,000 Students, an Astronaut, 16 Year-Old Aviators, NASA Exploration Vehicle and Full Size Airplane Draw Together In the Spirit of Technology & Exploration

What: “A Vision for Technology Exploration” Career and Information Fair

Who: Marsha Ivins, Astronaut, NASA
Dr. Darline P. Robles, Superintendent of Schools, Los Angeles County
16 Year-Old Aviators
5,000+ High School Juniors and Seniors throughout Southern California
Nader Mojtabai, District Manager, ITT Technical Institute
Pouria Abbassi, P.E., CEO, Los Angeles Convention Center
Greater San Fernando Valley Chamber of Commerce
Valley Industrial Association of Santa Clarita
Valley Industrial and Commerce Association
Economic Alliance of the San Fernando Valley
Jobing.com and Jobing Foundation
Professionals in Human Resources Foundation

When: Wednesday, April 16th, 2008
10 a.m. – 4 p.m. Presentation: 11:00 a.m

Where: Los Angeles Convention Center (West Hall, “B”),
1201 S. Figueroa Street, Los Angeles, CA 90015.
Media parking: Gilbert Lindsay Plaza (off Figueroa and 12th Street)

Why: To raise awareness among high school students on the importance of:

- 1) Pursuing higher learning education particularly in science, technology, engineering, and math.
- 2) Students’ roles as members of the 21st century technology-focused workforce.

Visuals:

- Polar Exploration Vehicle
- Full Size Airplane
- Space Shuttle Mock-Up
- Message from the International Space Station
- 16-Year-Old Aviators from Tomorrow’s Aeronautical Museum

RSVP: For media registration, contact Felix I. Hernandez at (213) 792-1948 cell.

###